Lisa Reyna, HJH 8th grader, center, raised the Reserve Grand Champion lamb. Buying the lamb were Tommy and Susan Dickens.

Silvano Pena, in striped shirt, HHS student, raised the Reserve Grand Champion hog. Buying the lamb were Robert Marshall and Hebbbron Auto Supply represented here by David Morales, and Manuel Luna, right.

Mazey Hellen, HES student, center, raised the Reserve Grand Champion goat. Buying it was Martifer Renewals, a wind energy company. Representing them was Manni Cummins, center, with his family.

15 steers, 24 lambs, 33 hogs and 9 goats raised $158,400 for the scores of exhibitors, not counting the add-ons. It is now the FAIR's policy to begin bidding at $1,000 so now, anyone showing an animal, barring it was sifted will make at least $1,000. This year only four exhibitors received less than $1,000
